

PMSM test bench, 40 independent sessions: identification, sample budget, and recalibration a atoms need 10^3 to 10^4 samples; the residual gap is drift, not noise b fourfold over a correlation matrix, but only slightly over marginals, which panel d then destroys c oriented hysteresis carries most of the identity, and it is exactly what a symmetric correlation cannot express d an independent monotone warp on every channel

